THE JOKES OF OUR RULERS.

When the president was in Kansas Secretary Root received a request from the people of Quincy, Ill., that the monitor Arkansas stop at that town on its way down from the exposition ceremonies. Mr. Root handed the telegram to the president, who repeated it to Secretary Moody in Washington.

adding: "Root says he has no monitor named Arkansas, but thinks you have one in your department. If not, he suggests that you try the postmaster-general, and the president added instructions that the monitor visit every city on the Mississippi where it could find navigable water, because he wanted the public to see one of the modern floating fortresses. The monitor went around through the falling of the waters of the Mississippi. In the mean time Secretary Root left the president's part and returned to Washington while Secretary Moody joined the president, and on May 12 the president sent a telegram to the secretary of war, saying: "Moody reports that the monitor Arkansas has run around in the Mississippi, and is likely to be laid up there indefinitely in consequence of your recommendations. He asks that the army of the United States be called out to get her afloat and to tow, pole or carry her to deep water."—New York Tribune.

MANCHAUSSEN HEARD FROM.

A dispatch from New Brunswick, N.
J., state that a trolley car was held up near Round Brook by a swarm of mosquitoes. The motorman was attacked on all sides and was compelled to stop the car, which was delayed 40 minutes.

It is thought that this trouble will be prevented in the future if the motor-man wear bird cages on their heads.

VOTE AGAINST CAMPBELL

HOUSE ATTEMPTS TO REGULATE
PUBLIC WORKS APPOINTMENTS IN APPROPRIATION BILL.

The House this morning went after Marston Campbell again and the enemies of the assistant superintendent of Public Works reinforced by Speaker Beckley, carried their point. To the appropriation for the salary for the position which it is understood he is to fill was added the words, "provided he is not Marston Campbell."

The action was taken after a wrangle over points of order and a general debate which threatened to last all morning until Czar Beckley took a hand.
He called Harris to the chair and made a short speech moving the amendment against Campbell. Fernandez had been trying to reconsider the matter as passed upon yesterday and had been stopped by Harris' points of order, while Kupihua tried to move the amendment which Beckley proposed. "The end of the session is near," said Beckley, "and it is necessary that this quarrelling should stop. These appropriation bills must be in the hands of the governor before midnight next Saturday."

Chillingworth, by way of hastening matters, seconded Beckley's motion and moved the previous question, and the amendment stating that Marston Campbell must not draw the salary for the supervising engineer was carried by the following vote:

Ayes—Chillingworth, Damiana, Fernandez, Kalli, Kaniho, Kealawa, Kou, Kumalee, Kupihua, Lewis, Long, Nakaleka, Oili, Paele, Pali, Pulaa, Purdy, Vida.

Noes—Andrade, Aylett, Gandall, Greenwell, Hala, Harris, Kalama, Kelinol, Knudsen, Wright.

THE SURGEON'S CUTTING UP

HOUSE MEMBERS TRY TO DOWN APPROPRIATION FOR BACTE-RIOLOGIST AND PATHOLOGIST.

The salary of the bacteriologist and pathologist of the Board of Health had a narrow escape in the House this morning and some charges of ill treatment of lepers were made, during a debate stated by Paele, who moved to strike out the item for the bacteriologist. Paele said that news had come from the leper settlement that the official had been "cutting up people," and this accusation aroused Kumalee. Anything arouses Kumalee into speechmaking, and this morning there was a crowded lobby. Some of the members think that if the lobby was cleared the session would end much more quickly.

Kumalee thought that the doctors ought to cut up the dead and not the living. The doctors came here and cut up the unfortunate lepers to study the disease and then went away and made money out of what they learned, said the statesman of the Fourth District. The inhuman doctors even took pieces of flesh to their homes, to examine them, said Kumalee. The next step would have been to charge the doctors with being cannibals, but Kumalee stopped before getting that far.
"I am informed that there are people dying daily at the settlement," said Kumalee. "In that case the doctors can perform their surgical operations on the dead and not the living.

Beckley suddenly put the previous question, apparently hoping that no one would notice that it hadn't been moved, but Aylett wanted to speak and refused to be shut off. Aylett supported the appropriation, but roasted the doings of the doctors, saying the Board of Health was mostly to blame.
When the vote came the result was a tie and Beckley cast the deciding vote in favor of the appropriation for the doctor who cuts up people.

DEATHS OF A MONTH.

The Board of Health has just issued its monthly report for Honolulu for the month of June. The total number of deaths during the month was sixty.
Of these 15 were of children under one year of age. Six were between 1 and 5; 2 between 5 and 10; 3 between 10 and 20; 7 between 20 and 30; 9 between 30 and 40; 8 between 40 and 50; 4 between 50 and 60; 2 between 60 and 70; and 4 over 70. Of these latter, 2 were Hawaiians, 1 British and 1 American; two were men and two women. Of all the deaths 35 were of men and 25 women; 25 were Hawaiians, 9 Chinese, 7 Portuguese, 12 Japanese, 1 British, 4 American, and 2 of other nationalities. Six died from pneumonia and 9 from consumption. Two was the highest number from any other one cause.

WIVES ARE COSTLY.

A woman has been granted a divorce out in Washington because her husband failed to support her. When they were married the man had $1.50, and no work, and that was two years ago.
When the divorce was granted he was still without a job, and had squandered his entire fortune.

DEADLY POISON.

A professor in Philadelphia recently amused his chemistry class by telling of the old German professor who, in stating that cyanide of potassium was a deadly poison, went so far as to say that "one drop of the stuff placed on the tongue of a rabbit, would kill the strongest man."
